

WORLD NEWS IN REVIEW

OUR FAIR

The Golden Gate International Exposition is definitely a success. Washington's Birthday saw a record attendance and all reports ooze superlatives—which is as it should be.

HANNES SCHNEIDER

Most famed ski teacher in the world, Hannes Schneider, is now in the United States.

Last March, when Germany annexed Austria, the Nazis appropriated the Arlberg School, deposed Skimeister Schneider (a Catholic), held him in custody for an undisclosed reason. Eager to get him out were the ski enthusiasts of every other country. Last week, after ten months of negotiations on the part of a New York banker, Harvey D. Gibson (Manufacturers Trust Company), big, handsome Hannes Schneider arrived in the U. S. to establish his school at North Conway, New Hampshire. No less pleased than Banker Gibson, who hopes to make North Conway the Arlberg of the U. S., were thousands of ski enthusiasts who yearn for the day when their compatriots will make as creditable a showing in international skiing as they do in tennis, golf, swimming, polo.

TRAMP SCHOLARS

U. S. colleges were called too big and too bad in the annual report of Dr. Walter Albert Jessup, president of the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Learning.

One growing evil which Jessup attacked was the increase of tramp scholars.

"The medieval age," said he, "had its wandering scholar. We have our itinerant or fleeting scholar. Hundreds of thousands of these itinerant students move from college to college, each armed with his letter of credit." Dr. Jessup found that collegiate hoboism, once thought of as a shiftless, boomtime phenomenon, had in the past few years reached appalling proportions. Although it is commonly supposed that the typical college student enters as a freshman and emerges from the same college with a diploma four years later, actually today most students transfer or drop out before commencement day. Only one-third receive degrees in the college in which they started.

AIM TO SECURE REDWOOD LANDS FOR US PUBLIC

Region Would Be First Substantial Area On Coast

If present negotiations between the United States Forest service and private owners of redwood timber lands are successful, the American public will soon own 6,251 acres of virgin redwoods in northern California. According to Regional Forester S. B. Show, the proposed region, just north of the Klamath river in Del Norte county, would become the first substantial area of the coast redwood type under management of the Forest service.

The National Forest Reservation commission at Washington, D. C., which must approve all purchases of land for national forest purposes, recently authorized negotiations with present owners for the transaction. All of the land involved in the proposed purchase is tax delinquent.

"Acquisition by the public of a moderate amount of the coastal redwood type is very desirable," said Regional Forester Show at San Francisco headquarters, "and it is hoped that additional purchases will be made until a unit which can be efficiently and economically administered is acquired."

"The lands now under consideration for purchase and any future acquisitions will be managed by the Forest service under the multiple use principle, with due consideration being given to recreation, forage, mineral and other values, as well as to the timber crop. One of the main objectives of the Forest service is to co-operate with the redwood industry, the University of California and other interested agencies such as the State and local governments in developing ways and means by which redwood timber can best be harvested and still leave the land in the most productive condition," Mr. Show concluded.

Local Banker Cites Business Better As Whole

Business in California and the Far West was better as a whole during January than in the same month the year before, according to Carl E. Newman, local branch manager of Bank of America.

Business Review for the month of January, just released by the bank's analysis and research department, shows the bank's index standing at 75.1, which is 1.9 per cent higher than in January last year, and higher than any other month in 1938 with the single exception of December, which had seen a sharp rise to 78.5. The building industry continued to provide a most favorable sign of business progress as permits for all types of construction in 32 important California cities reached a total of $15,315,930. This was a gain of 24.4 over January last year, and 34.2 per cent better than January, 1937.

Daly City Well Baby Clinic Celebrates Tenth Anniversary

Scientific Assistance To Mothers Is Aim Of Center

Celebrating the tenth anniversary of its establishment, the Daly City Well Baby Clinic this month reviews ten years of service to the mothers of this community.

Modern babies are no longer raised by the hit-and-miss method. It was in the hope of bringing scientific assistance to mothers in infant care and feeding that the clinic was founded. Sponsored originally by the grammar school P. T. A.'s, the clinic has done much in the campaign for better babies.

Large Attendance

Located on the corner of Mission and Flornoy, the Well Baby Clinic sees some fifty babies come through its doors each month. Here the infants are weighed, measured and examined by a child specialist, and expert advice given to their parents about diet and schedule problems.

Although the clinic is intended primarily for routine examination of well babies, preventative measures are taken against smallpox and diphtheria.

Visiting hours are from 9 to 11 a. m. every first and third Wednesday. No charges are made for the services of the clinic.

It is interesting to note that babies are on the increase in Daly City. Although the clinic averaged only about thirty babies a month during the depression, it averages around fifty at the present time.

Present medical staff consists of Dr. Helen M. Johnson, physician in charge, assisted by Mrs. E. Lohr, Jefferson District school nurse. Quarters for the clinic are donated. San Mateo chapter, American Red Cross, furnishes the services of a child specialist.

Executive Board

Present executive board consists of Mrs. Maizie Boyle, Mrs. Eva Page, and Mrs. Marge Woodside.

The value of this clinic to the community cannot be measured in dollars and cents. With a constantly increasing enrollment, the next ten years of this establishment should be as successful as the last ten have been.

S. M. Posse Sponsors Wild West Show

Sunday afternoon, February 26, the Livestock Pavilion in Visitation Valley will resound with "Yippee-e-s" and the arena take on the appearance of a Wild West Show. The San Mateo County Sheriff's Posse are sponsoring a real stampede and rodeo and inviting the general public to witness the exhibition, free of charge. Although only recently inducted into office as deputy sheriffs, the posse has made several public appearances and in every case has made a hit. They participated in the big Daly City parade last Wednesday evening.

Jack P. Lawson, mayor of Bayshore City, is captain of the troop with Frank Ratto as second captain, Robert E. Lee and Edward J. Allen as first and second lieutenants respectively.

The posse is directly under the orders of Sheriff James J. McGrath of San Mateo county.

BEFORE AND AFTER

Displays above the classic caption "Before and After" reached a new high in popularity here during the world fair premiere.

A. M. Harrison Plumbing show rooms, 6236 Mission street, featured a window display of old and new type sanitary facilities. Rather than attempt a description, your correspondent recommends that interested residents call by the show rooms and inspect the display.

COUPLE GIVES FLAG TO PLAYGROUND

Mr. and Mrs. August Hansen, 64 Acton street, gave a fine ten-foot American flag to the city, on Wednesday morning, for use at the playgrounds at Acton and Brunswick streets.

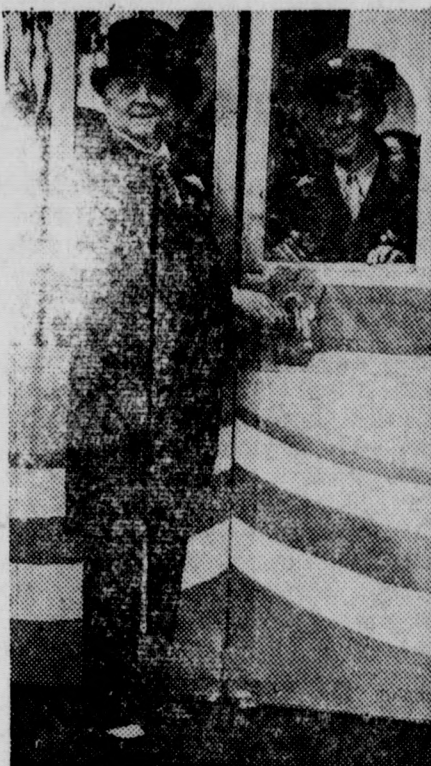

The flag was turned over to Police Chief A. L. Hilton, who had it raised immediately.

City officials expressed gratitude to the Hansens for their generous gift.

To Open Jefferson Swimming Pool To Public March 3

On Friday evening, March 3, at 7 p.m. the Jefferson Union high school swimming pool will be opened to the people of the community for the spring season of 1939.

The last two weeks have been spent in painting and polishing up the entire plant in preparation for the new season.

The pool will be open every night except Sunday from 7 p.m. until 9:30 p.m. It will also be open Saturday afternoons from 1:30 p.m. to 5 p.m. Wednesday evening, however, will be reserved for women only. Instructors will be present to aid any woman desiring instructions in swimming. If there is sufficient demand, a class in beginning swimming for ladies will also be organized.

The admission price for the general public will be 40 cents. The night school student rate will be 25 cents after the first night of enrollment. Any adult may enroll for night school swimming. Attendance once a month keeps one's name on the roll for the night school swimming rates. All grammar school students will be admitted for 15 cents during Saturday afternoons and 25 cents at evening times. These admission prices include suit, towel, and locker.

The gymnasium will continue to be available to the public on Tuesday evening and Thursday evening. There is no charge for admittance to the gymnasium. On Wednesdays and Fridays two regularly scheduled basketball games will be played. The public is invited to attend these games at no charge.

How to grow old scientifically will be shown in a "March of Life" exhibit in the Hall of Science at the California World's Fair.

Fair Premiere Provides Local Color

The world fair premiere has slipped into the past, but Daly City residents will not soon forget the glorious occasion. Not only will memories of the great San Francisco celebration and the first few exciting days on Treasure Island linger for many a year, but the parade, town show, Colma street dance and other local festivities will be remembered as one of the most colorful eras of Daly City history.

Sponsored by the Night Owl Club and merchants of southern Daly City and Colma, a street dance held Thursday evening of last week at the junction of San Pedro road and Mission street "stole the show" of all festivities here.

More than 2000 persons in costume attended the street dance. Free hot dogs and coffee were served by sponsors of the affair headed by Orlando Poletti, Danny Casentini, David Franzia, and Gus Pedmonte.

Town Show

The Town Show, all-western theater party, staged Thursday evening at the Daly City Theater, was a major event of the celebration. Apparently due to the fact that so many outdoor events were being held, the town show was not exceptionally well attended.

Horsemen, covered wagons, buggies, floats, fire equipment and one hundred horsemen led Wednesday night's parade. Police Chief Hilton directed the line of march. San Mateo County Sheriff's posse was also entered in the procession.

Store decorations, costumes and general festivities completed the celebration.

BRIDLE PATHS

Local groups are organizing horseback rides on Saturdays and Sundays with the advent of clear weather. Reports from the riders are that the bridle paths are in fine condition, especially around Lake Merced.

All bridle paths to the beach and Golden Gate Park are easily accessible from the riding stables in Colma.

County Ranchers Ask Police Protection

In an effort to make a more efficient patrol of ranches, victims of artichoke thieves, Deputy Sheriff Leland Quinlan Tuesday asked Sheriff James McGrath for a car with which to patrol the artichoke area here.

Quinlan explained to a meeting of ranchers Monday night that he has been using his own car and is limited to expenses of $15 each month.

Meanwhile ranchers will take turns patrolling the Coast highway between the Santa Cruz county line and Pigeon Point, only road by which the ranches may be reached, according to Humphrey.

Seventeen ranchers attended the meeting Monday night, all of whom reported losses. Deputy Quinlan took a list of all the losses and reported them to Sheriff McGrath.

Bicycle Riding

"There were 700 persons killed in 1937 while riding bicycles. This tremendous increase in cycling accidents and deaths has caused peace officers to give serious thought to this problem. Several California cities have passed ordinances regulating the operation of bicycles and at the present time other cities are considering the advisability of adopting regulatory measures. Some of the cities that have adopted ordinances are Fresno, Santa Monica, Glendale, Long Beach, Palo Alto and San Jose."

The above is quoted from the January issue of the Peace Officers' News Letter, League of California Municipalities. To this list can be added Redwood City where an ordinance regulating bicycle traffic and requiring registration of bicycles was passed recently. Several other San Mateo county municipalities are now studying the problem and considering the advisability of such an ordinance. SAN MATEO COUNTY TRAFFIC SAFETY COMMISSION.

WEATHER MAN PLAYS BIG ROLE IN AUTO PLANT

Production Men Watch Plant Thermometer Closely To Insure Perfect Fits

The weather man is a pretty important fellow around automobile plants these days. With temperatures in Detroit ranging anywhere from zero to thirty degrees above from one day to the next, De Soto production experts on the engine assembly line must keep one eye glued to the thermometer in the plant and the other to certain of those precision metal parts that go to make up the engine of every car that comes off the line.

Engine Parts

Some of these engine parts, De Soto production heads report, contract or expand from one ten-thousandth to one-thousandth of an inch if the temperature in the plant varies as little as five degrees on either side of the seventy mark. With the mercury outside frequently bouncing fifteen to twenty-five degrees from one day to the next, it is obvious to see what tricks can be played on cylinder bores and pistons, for example, which are fitted together so accurately that they are measured down to the ten-thousandth of an inch.

In the assembly of De Soto engines, production men have developed several ingenious methods of defying the weather man. When cylinder blocks are first started out down the assembly line, for instance, they are run on a conveyor through a hot water bath. Consequently, by the time these blocks reach the place where pistons, piston rods and wrist pins are fitted—where parts are assembled accurately to the ten-thousandths of an inch—their temperature registers approximately seventy degrees. This, production men have found, is the ideal temperature for engine assembly operations.

Blower Heater

In the case of De Soto pistons, a special blower heater is continually pouring heated air on the pistons at the point of fitting. This normalizes their size and insures perfect fitting because it warms them to the master temperature of approximately 70 degrees, the same temperature the block registers at the point of piston and cylinder bore assembly.

Both the temperatures of the water used to heat the blocks and the air used to heat the pistons are varied according to the temperature in the plant. Each is maintained at the level necessary to make the blocks and pistons register the master 70 degrees when they are ready for fitting.

De Soto is sold and serviced in Daly City by Donahue and Laufenberg.

Special Signs Guide Exposition Traffic

Motorists driving to the Exposition on Treasure Island in San Francisco Bay find special traffic signs playing an important role in the handling of travel to the Fair. There are signs directing them to Bay bridge approaches, signs that warn when parking space on the island is filled, signs that warn if bridge traffic to the Fair should become blocked, and guiding and warning signs on the island itself.

Close to 700 signs of all types have been installed by the California State Automobile association, as official road signing agency, in co-operation with Exposition and Bay bridge officials and city authorities.

In downtown San Francisco and at important intersections in outlying districts traversed by traffic entering the city 400 special direction signs, bearing the Exposition seal and displaying black arrows, point the way to the bridge.

Only the fluid recommended by the car manufacturer should be used in the hydraulic brake system, advises the California State Automobile association.

Chrysler-Plymouth Dealer Lists Income Deductions

Here are a few suggestions for motorists which will help relieve that headache around March 15, deadline date for Federal income tax returns. According to A. L. Timossi, Chrysler-Plymouth dealer here, motorists may make substantially the same reductions on the operation of their automobiles under both Federal and State income tax laws.

The following deductible items were given by Timossi, manager of the Mission Auto Company:

Registration fees, license fees, personal property and municipal taxes. Financing charges, not including insurance, also interest on money borrowed to purchase the automobile.

Insurance on automobiles used for business purposes.

Operating and service maintenance, depreciation on a car used entirely for business purposes, or a share of such expenses where the car is used for both pleasure and business.

Damage Losses

Losses through damage to the automobile where no insurance was received.

Cost of damage to either property or persons when the automobile was being used for business purposes.

When a car is used for business and sold for less than its depreciated value, the difference may be deducted. This does not include instances where the car is traded in on a new car at a lower price than its depreciated value. However, such depreciation can be deducted on the following year.

Items which cannot be deducted include: Federal and State gasoline taxes; Federal taxes on accessories, on lubricating oil, tubes, tires, etc.; Federal taxes on new cars.

Consider Future Of U.S. Wildlife

The future of wildlife in 160 national forests of this country will have an improved outlook as a result of a meeting of Forest Service wildlife management officials which started Tuesday at forestry headquarters in San Francisco. The conference will continue for about two weeks.

Following the meeting the group will make a field study of wildlife ranges in national forest areas of California and Nevada. Dr. H. L. Shantz, chief of the Division of Wildlife Management for the Forest Service, and his assistant, John H. Hatton, are in San Francisco for the series of discussions at which Dr. Shantz will preside.

In announcing that the Forest Service in California would be host to wildlife officers from all parts of the United States, Regional Forester S. B. Show indicated that the meeting was "to help find a solution to the problems of our wildlife and the Nation's sportsmen."

MUST THINK FAST

Fast thinking is a necessity when there is an accident, reports the safety department of the National Automobile club. First arrivals at the scene of an accident should resist the temptation to rush the injured off to the hospital. Many times it is better to administer first aid immediately—to apply artificial respiration, to stop bleeding, or to apply a splint. Again there are times when the injured should not be moved until a doctor comes, particularly in cases of spinal injuries, for fear of making the injury worse. Above all, it should be remembered that it is easier on the injured to have a safe and smooth ride to the hospital than to have a wild, hectic and nerve-wracking trip.

A squadron of Canadian mounted police will guard the exhibit of British Columbia at the World's Fair of the West on Treasure Island.

Harry A. Illions, whose forefathers founded the famous Swiss woodcarving village of Illions, will operate the ferris wheel concessions at the California World's Fair.

Auto Registration Increases In State

Recording a healthy increase in motor vehicle registration during 1938, California reversed a nationwide trend which saw the United States as a whole experiencing a slight drop in registration totals.

This was pointed out by the California State Automobile association in a statement today reviewing recently issued official state registration figures and available nationwide data.

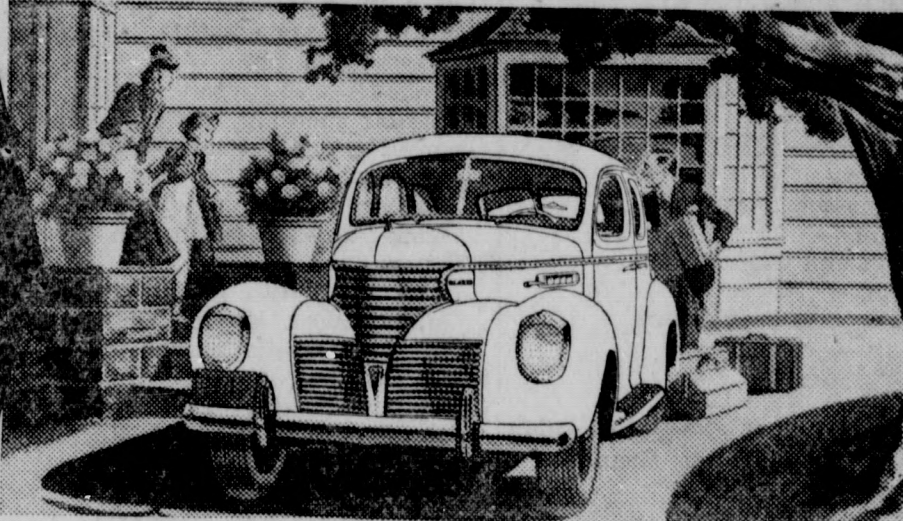

Total registration in the United States showed a decline of about one per cent, the statement said, the first drop since 1933 and the fourth in the history of the automobile industry.

Meanwhile, California ran up a total of 2,663,733 registrations as compared with 2,627,640 in 1937, an increase of 36,093 for the year.

Fifteen thousand girls from all parts of the country have sought jobs as hostesses at the Golden Gate International Exposition.

HANKIES MATCH LIPSTICK

Chic New Yorkers are matching their handkerchiefs to the color of their lipstick these days. A leading cosmetics house is featuring French sheer handkerchiefs in shades dyed to match the colors of lipsticks. The handkerchiefs may be had both in regular and sports size.

SPOTLIGHT ON LITERATURE

A new bed lamp being introduced by a house noted for its up-to-the-minute gadgets is designed like the spotlight of an automobile. Adjustable to any type of bed, the lamp casts the spotlight on the reader's book or magazine and leaves the rest of the room in darkness in case friend husband or one's roommate wants to sleep.

SPRING SWISHING IN

This year the smartest frocks and suits will enter the spring cavalcade with a swish, thanks to their gay taffeta slips and petticoats. Leading Fifth avenue shops are featuring old fashioned petticoats as well as slips in vivid stripes and solid colors, trimmed with ruffles and coy bows of ribbon. From present indications it will be a brave ensemble that steps out this spring without its taffeta petticoat.

ENSEMBLE NOTE IMPORTANT

Ensemble accessory sets will be even more important than usual this spring. Bags, shoes, belts and gloves are being shown in matched suede in all the important spring colors. Another idea is the harmonized accessory set, with bag and shoes matching and gloves and belt a lighter shade of the same color.

SALT

"Ye are the salt of the earth" (Mt. 5:13.)

The virtue of salt is its saving power. Properly used, it will preserve food, but when it has lost that saving and preserving strength, it is of no more value.

Jesus made an apt comparison when he declared that Christians are the salt of the earth. As servants of the living God, it is one of their duties to save the world by taking to it the message of the Savior. There is no saving power in the men themselves, but they are merely the vessels through which the power of the gospel works.

The term was peculiarly applicable to the apostles themselves, and since through them the gospel has been made known, and those who are taught are to teach others, it follows that all Christians are thus like the salt.

The plan of salvation was completed by Jesus Christ and is recorded

Panel an Alcove With Mirrors

MANY bedrooms have alcoves which it is sometimes difficult to make use of effectively. One of the most interesting treatments one can devise is to panel the alcove in mirrors of polished plate glass and thus convert it into a high point of glamour for a dressing table group. Illustrated here is a small alcove which became the focal point of interest in the bedroom through use of mirror panels. The cost of the above installation was approximately $85. It is permanent, requiring no redecorating from year to year.

in the scriptures, but he left the work of taking it to the world and future ages in the hands of men—his servants.

When a Christian is living, a pure, clean life, and using every opportunity to tell of the love of Jesus, he is like saving salt. But if he is doing nothing to influence men to live the righteous life, then he is worthless in the kingdom.

The question that each should ask himself is whether he is without value in the vineyard of the Lord, or if he deserves to be designated among the "salt of the earth."

Christian Science Lesson - Sermon

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Christ Jesus" will be the subject of the Lesson - Sermon Sunday, February 26, in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts.

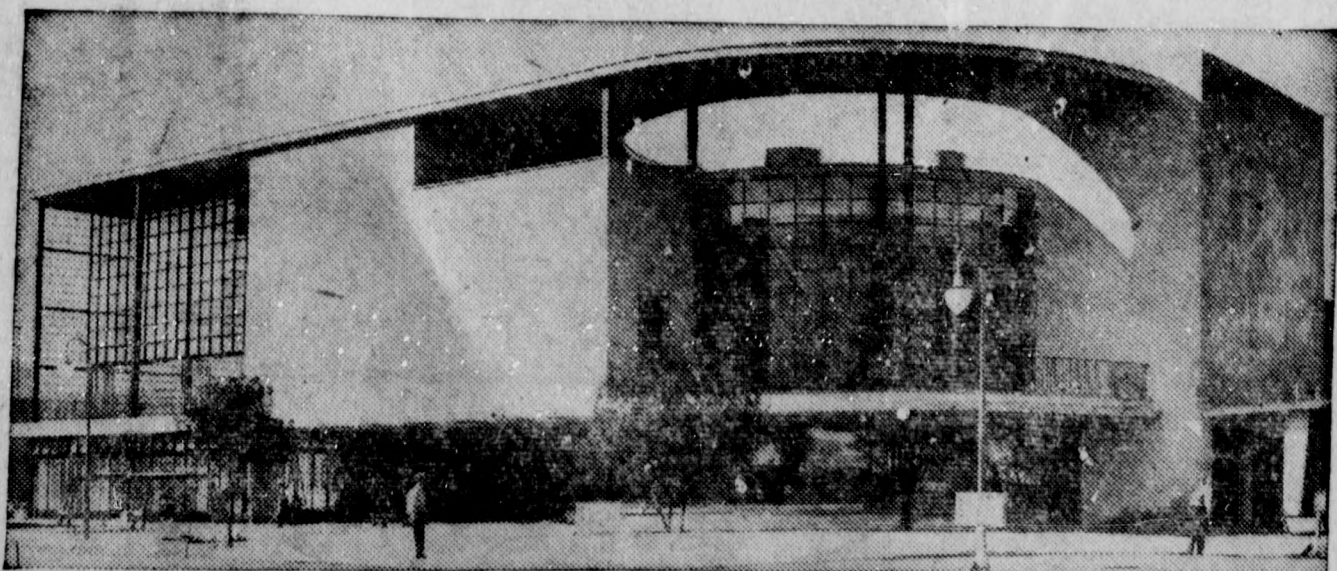

The Golden Text will be: "Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; . . . And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him" (Col. 3: 16, 17). Other Bible citations will include: "The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light; they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined. . . . For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder; and his name shall be called Wonderful Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace. Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even for ever. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will perform this" (Isa. 9: 2, 6, 7).

The Lesson - Sermon will also include the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Throughout all generations both before and after the Christian era, the Christ, as the spiritual idea, — the reflection of God, — has come with some measure of power and grace to all prepared to receive Christ, Truth. Abraham, Jacob, Moses, and the prophets caught glorious glimpses of the Messiah, or Christ, which baptized these seers in the divine nature, the essence of Love" (p. 333).

PORK IN PREFERRED WAYS

Pork chops are a stand-by in most households, and when properly cooked, they certainly justify their popularity. But too many pork chops are always served in the same way—just as fried pork chops. It takes long, slow cooking in a covered pan to bring out the full, rich flavor of pork. Well-cooked pork chops will have a deep brown, almost glazed exterior and the interior will be as white as chicken breast. They will be so tender that they may be cut with a fork.

Pork chops and apples are famous food affinities. Mention pork chops and one thinks at once of fried apple rings or apple sauce. A new twist to this old combination is to actually cook the pork chops in pure, undiluted apple juice, the kind which you can buy in glass jars, just as it is pressed from the whole ripe apples.

Not only does the apple juice enhance the flavor of the pork chops, but it keeps them moist and juicy during the long, slow cooking. And the drippings in the pan will make delicious gravy to serve with the chops. If you want to give your family a taste thrill, the next time you put pork chops on your shopping list, be sure that a bottle of apple juice is also on the list.

NORMANDIE PORK CHOPS

6 pork chops
4 tablespoons flour
1 tablespoon fat
6 orange slices
1½ teaspoons salt
¾ teaspoon black pepper
1½ cups apple juice

Roll chops in 2 tablespoons of flour, saute' in fat until golden brown. Place in casserole, top each chop with slice of orange. Blend remaining flour, salt, pepper, and apple juice and pour around chops. Cover and bake in a moderate oven (375° F.) 1½ hours to 2 hours, or until chops are tender, uncovering them during the last 30 minutes of baking.

Does it tax your ingenuity to prepare the remainder of last night's roast. Here is a recipe for left-over roast pork which will demand an encore when it makes its first appearance. In fact, it is so good that you may want to buy a larger roast just so you will have enough left to make Carolina Pork Casserole.

CAROLINA PORK CASSEROLE

1½ to 2 cups diced cold pork
1 cup thinly sliced onions
2 tablespoons bacon fat or butter
1 tablespoon flour
1 teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon pepper
½ cup chili sauce
2 tablespoons drained horseradish
1½ teaspoons Worcestershire sauce
1½ cups boiling water
2 cups cooked hominy

Saute' the pork and onions in fat until lightly browned. Stir in flour. Combine salt, pepper, chili sauce, horseradish, Worcestershire sauce, and water. Gradually add to meat mixture and cook 10 minutes until thickened, stirring constantly. Add hominy. Turn into casserole and bake in moderate oven (375°F.) 45 minutes. Serves 6.

The really successful left-over dish hasn't a suspicion of that well-known "left-over" flavor. Meats are cooked so that they will be perfect for the meal for which they were originally prepared and by merely reheating them, their flavor cannot be recaptured. However, if you fortify yourself with a variety of sauces, seasonings and herbs and use them with daring and imagination, your left-over meat problem will be solved.

WADE H. CLAY HOSPITAL REPORTS MAKES REPORT ON MEMORIAL

Impressive Ceremonies Held At City Hall In So. San Francisco

By Wade H. Clay

Seldom have the people of South San Francisco witnessed more impressive ceremonies than those which took place at the City Hall on Washington's birthday. The occasion was not only the observance of the anniversary of the birth of the "Father of our Country," George Washington, but was also the occasion to commemorate the passing, about a year ago, of one of the best loved and most respected citizens of San Bruno, Doctor F. Holmes Smith.

First there was a street parade by the Italian American Citizen's Club; American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars; The Mexican Society Grove 171, Druids; and the South San Francisco and San Bruno Boy Scouts of America, all in uniform and led by their drum corp and the drum corp of the Mexican Society. They marched west on Grand avenue past the City Hall and then counter-marched and formed on the spacious steps to take part in the exercises.

Then followed the singing of the "Star Spangled Banner" by the assembled crowd, the Invocation by the Reverend H. D. Harkins, the Pledge of Allegiance by the Scouts, the Scout Oath, Cub Oath, the introduction of leaders of organizations, and the speakers of the day. Short talks were made by W. H. Clay, J. W. Colberd, Postmaster J.P. Quinlan, Superintendent of High School G. Carl Weller, and Recreation Director A. L. Shaffer.

The placing of the wreath by Dr. J. C. McGovern, in memory of Dr. F. Holmes Smith, whose untimely death has been deplored by all good citizens who knew him, was solemn and impressive. As the wreath was placed at the foot of bust of Washington, all stood at attention while taps were sounded. The bust of Washington, which was presented to the City of South San Francisco some time ago by the Italian American Citizens Club, was completely surrounded by American flags and the flags of the various organizations. The Benediction was pronounced by Reverend Father H. Maisano.

Too much praise cannot be given to the Boy Scouts and their leaders. They are fast becoming the most important body in South San Francisco and San Bruno. The future welfare of the community depends largely on them, for they will be the men of tomorrow. The importance of having them well trained now cannot be over estimated.

While we have many men in San Mateo county who are active in Scout work and deserve great credit for what they are doing, there are outstanding figures in this part of the county, whose untiring efforts have borne fruit in the way of making the South San Francisco and San Bruno Boy Scouts among the best trained and governed anywhere.

Among those who have given freely of their time and energy, patience and perseverance, and who show bountiful results, is the well known Scout Master, Joe Wilson. He has great ability in his chosen work with the Scouts. He is patient, kind, considerate, intelligent and efficient in every detail of the work, and very industrious. He commands respect from all the Scouts. They all love him, and through that mutual regard and respect they obey him with the greatest promptness and precision. The people of this district owe a debt of gratitude to Joe Wilson. He is worthy of every trust and confidence.

Keep Main Street Facing Forward

A Tribute to the Retail Merchants of this Community

Each of us has an obligation . . . a real debt to the merchants of Daly City. Year in and year out, they bear a fair share of the tax load. Some of them pioneered this town. They've molded it into what it is. On their counters and shelves, you find the quality products of the world . . . selling at fair prices.

Let us bear in mind that the dollars we spend with our local merchants stay within the community circle. "Trade at home" is no idle phrase. We urge every citizen to do his or her part in "Keeping Our Main Street Facing Forward." And, in the field of printing, keep your jobs in Daly City.

Recreation Team Defeats Merchants

Pat Sloan's Daly City Recreation baseball team took Eddie White's Daly City Merchant's outfit to town last Sunday on the Jefferson Union high school diamond in a big way by defeating them 7 to 2 and settling the much-debated question of which was the better team.

Owens who pitched for the Recreation outfit struck out 15 men and allowed but 5 hits, notwithstanding the fact he was as wild as a March hare, hitting 5 batters and walking 3. The trouble with Owens was he was trying a new curved ball and could not make it break fast enough. Luccia pitched a good game and while he had fine support in the field his team mates were not there when heavy stick work was necessary.

Daly City fans will be interested to learn that Owens plays this season with Sacramento; George Raganti goes to the Oaks and Pfeiffer to either the Seals or Spokane.

Petrocchi of the WPA Recreation team could have signed up with one of the Coast league teams, but having recently married, he decided to stick around Daly City and keep the home fires burning.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR MAIL CARRIER

Isadore Gottfried, former rural mail carrier for the Colma post office, died in San Francisco Wednesday evening of last week.

Mr. Gottfried was one of the pioneer residents in Daly City. He formerly conducted a grocery store on Los Olivos avenue.

Mr. Gottfried is survived by seven children, Mrs. Alice Blumenfeld, Sam, Salinas, Leo, Joe, Jack and Abe Gottfried.

Funeral services were held on Friday of last week. Interment was at Salem Cemetery.

LEGION BANQUET

Daly City Post and Unit 410, American Legion, will hold their annual Past Commanders' and Past Presidents' banquet Tuesday evening, March 7, at Legion hall, San Diego avenue.

The organizations are also celebrating their ninth birthday anniversary the same evening.

MUSIC-BOOKS-DRAMA

ALCAZAR HIT DRAWS HUGE CROWD NIGHTLY

With a great international exposition on Treasure island in San Francisco bay attracting tens of thousands of visitors to the city, San Francisco's Federal Theatre project is holding a dramatic exposition of its own with its current smash hit, the all-negro musical drama "Run Little Chillun" at the Alcazar. Throughout its run since January 12 the play has attracted capacity audiences.

"Run Little Chillun" with its cast of 150 negro actors, singers and dancers is proving the outstanding success of all Federal theatre productions. It was written, supervised and staged by Hall Johnson, noted choral director who in the past few years has won fame also for screen and radio direction.

For the benefit of Exposition visitors the dramatic last scene of "Run Little Chillun" was produced in the Federal theatre on Treasure island on the two opening days where it was given an ovation.

TROOP NO. 101

Members of Boy Scout Troop No. 101 and Cub Pack No. 101 will hold a public whist Friday, March 10, at 601 Hanover street, at 8 p.m. Mrs. Henry Steele and Mrs. Fred Klingler are in charge of arrangements and will be assisted by other mothers of cubs and scouts.

Funds from the party will be used to help purchase badges and equipment for the less fortunate members of the Boy Scout group. It is also hoped that a general fund may be established for promoting outdoor meets and social affairs to achieve greater companionship between the boys and their parents.

Frank Coughlin, scoutmaster, extends a cordial invitation to the general public to attend this party.

GROUP NO. 141

On Thursday Troop No. 141 enjoyed their third annual Washington's birthday hike. It was to Hungry Hollow. The Scouts left Soy Bean's "stable" at 9:30 a.m. Lunch was cooked at the hollow and as usual was enjoyed by all present. Two new comers to the troop, William Starkey and Robert Johnston had a real dose of outdoor life. After the lunch the boys went on an exploration hike and "discovered" a roadless bridge and all posed for pictures on it. Soy Bean was used for the bulk of the trip, but observation work was done on foot.

Those making the trip were: Troop Committeeman Joseph Straughan in charge, and Scouts Glenn Goode, Donald Laston, Richard Russell, two candidates Robert Johnston and William Starkey.

CUB PACK NEWS

The special pack meeting on last Friday evening was well attended in spite of the big parade in the Mission district. Warren Herting was awarded his Wolf badge. The only den putting on a stunt was Den No. 5. Reverend Lewis told an interesting story; later several reels of motion pictures were shown.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Beckett, Winchester street, returned Monday of this week from Clear Lake where they spent several days vacationing.

A special reservoir on Yerba Buena Island, 260 feet higher than Treasure Island, contains 3,000,000 gallons of water for use at the California World's Fair.

Show Great Motion Pictures

Eleven programs of great motion pictures from the past will be shown at the San Francisco Museum of Art beginning March 7. Rare films from 1907 to 1937 will feature such favorite actors as Mary Pickford, Wallace Reid, Lillian Gish, Richard Barthelmess, Mae Marsh, Lowell Sherman, Jean Harlow.

Of particular interest will be the program showing the famous Gabrielle Rejane in "Madame Sans-Gene," Sarah Bernhardt in "La Dame aux Camellias," Minnie Maddern Fisk in "Vanity Fair" and Eleanora Duse in "Cenerentola."

Five programs are devoted to a survey of the work of Director D. W. Griffith. This begins with his first picture of 1907, "Rescued from an Eagle's Nest," in which he appeared as an actor, and includes "The Lonely Villa," "The Mother and the Law," "The Birth of a Nation," "Broken Blossoms," "Way Down East," and "Isn't Life Wonderful?"

"Anna Christie"

The great acting of Marie Dressler and Greta Garbo will be seen again in "Anna Christie." Two gangster films: "Public Enemy" and "I Am a Fugitive from a Chain Gang;" three little-known French films: "The Fall of the House of Usher," "Entr'acte" and "Joie de Vivre;" and the two Federal films by Pare Lorentz, "Plow That Broke the Plains" and "The River," will also be shown.

YOUNGSTERS ENJOY OWN LIBRARY ROOM

One of the most popular places for youngsters in Daly City is the children's room of the Daly City public library.

Finished in light cream and orange and cleverly decorated with nursery figures, this attractive department first opened its doors with the opening of the new library building last July. Low shelves, tempting displays of colored picture books and amusing little toy animals scattered about all contribute to its inviting appearance. Tables and chairs are of light oak and proportioned to the size of their youthful users.

Books range in appeal from pre-kindergarten age to high school and beyond. Such classic immortals as Lewis Carroll stand side by side with the latest work on model airplanes. At the present time there are approximately 1435 volumes available to young readers. An average of 100 new books are acquired each year. From the beginning the children's room has proved increasingly popular with the younger generation. It is estimated that of all the borrowers using the city library, one-third of the number are children.

Librarians extend a cordial invitation to every boy and girl in Daly City to take advantage of these splendid facilities.

Wednesday nights at 8 o'clock, beginning March 7 and 8. Refreshments will be served and short introductory talks given for each program. In order to attend the films, it is necessary to join the Film Art group, membership for which is issued at the San Francisco Museum of Art in Civic Center.

The films have been engaged from the Museum of Modern Art Film Library in New York.

A marriage license was issued in San Mateo county this week to Juan Reynoso, 50, and Goldie Sullivan, 45, both of Daly City.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN

(Editor's Note: The following is an essay by Helen Sola, high eighth grade pupil at Woodrow Wilson elementary school. The essay won first place in the annual Lincoln Essay contest.)

No young American boy or girl can think of Abraham Lincoln without telling himself how far he can go in this modern industrial country if he puts himself to the task. Abraham Lincoln came from the American soil; and he was born of American people. He was a mere backwoods boy, poor and plain and unknown, rising from nowhere up to the Presidency of the United States. No conveniences and no education, but he let none of these stop him. He had one pet hobby which was a hunger with him and that was the privilege of learning. Regardless of the work he had to do day and night, he would let nothing interfere with his studies.

His kindness, his honesty, his sense of humor and justice for which he was famous made him loved and respected by one and all. Who could dislike a man like that?

His "Emancipation Proclamation," was freeing the negroes and declaring their race the equal to other races.

In his capacity as President, naturally he had some enemies. He could not please everybody. Somebody had to be disappointed. Lincoln died in 1865 while sitting in a theater from the gun of an unknown government foe.

Thus cruelly ended the career of a great American, one loved, and re-

REVIEW REPORTS INCREASE

A significant increase of $151,000,000 in the assets of a comparable group of all types of savings and loan associations for the 12-month period ending with the third quarter of 1938 as compared with 1937 was reported today by the Federal Home Loan Bank review, published in Washington.

"This improvement," the review said, "while affected by the sizable gains in Federal associations, appears to have been general throughout the United States, since assets of identical members in each of the 12 Federal Home Loan Bank districts contributed to the favorable showing, with a majority of members of all classes registering increases.

"This survey, covering principally the recession months and ending before the effect of the favorable trends of the final quarter of 1938 could be estimated, is particularly significant because it shows that the majority of the member uninsured state-chartered institutions recorded a growth in assets. Although it has been usual for assets of Federal and insured state-chartered associations to increase, the 1938 expansion of assets of most of the member uninsured institutions effects a reversal of the trend of recent years."

Andes Walk, Inca Place and Pacific Promenade are names of streets at the Golden Gate International Exposition.

The Hall of Air Transportation where giant Clipper Ships will arrive and depart on their trips to and from the Orient, is dedicated to "Men With Wings of Yesterday, Today, Tomorrow."

Daly City Theatre to Show "Dramatic School"

Ann Rutherford, Paulette Goddard, Alan Marshal, Luise Rainer in "Dramatic School," which will play at the Daly City theatre Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, February 26, 27 and 28.

The indomitable determination of a poor factory worker to become a second Eleanor Duse is graphically told in "Dramatic School," which opens Sunday at the Daly City Theatre with Luise Rainer and Paulette Goddard starred in an important cast.

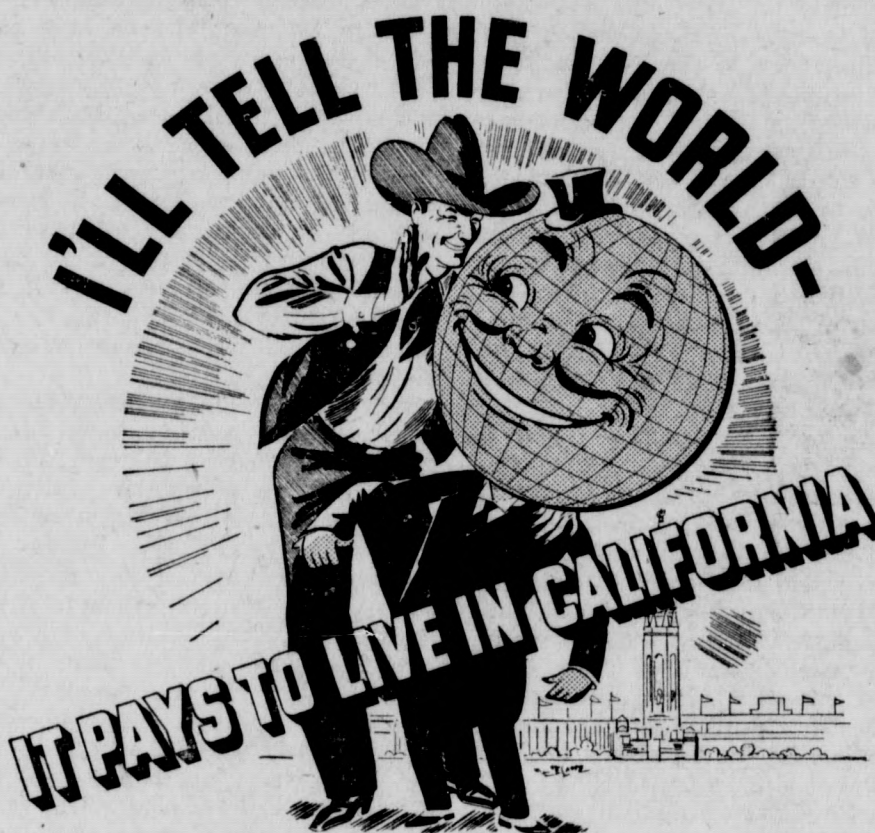

With Duse and Sarah Bernhardt as her inspiration, Miss Rainer plays the role of Louise Mauban, who toils in a gas meter plant in Paris through the night to earn enough money to study dramatics in the day-time.

Paulette Goddard, who sprang to screen fame from obscurity as Charlie Chaplin's leading lady in his comedy, "Modern Times," appears as Nana, the envious rich girl who places the obstacles in Louise's path toward becoming a great actress.

Alan Marshal, rising young Australian leading man who only recently made his screen debut in "Garden of Allah," plays the wealthy Marquis D'Abbenecourt, who falls in love with Louise.

Companion picture on the new bill opening Sunday will be "Exposed," starring Glenda Farrell and Otto Kruger.

WHEN there is a World's Fair right in our midst — the Golden Gate International Exposition on Treasure Island in San Francisco Bay — what a grand chance it is for all of us to tell the world that it pays to live in California! We know that story! Let's tell that story to friends and relatives in person, by letter and through our own enthusiasm about the joys of living here in California.

All through California are parks, streets, buildings, stores and homes that have been made to "shine for '39." Your own home looking bright and fresh and clean this Spring will show no effects of winter. Green lawn, shrubs and gay flowers. The whiteness of your house, which thanks to clean Gas Heating, retains its bright newness. To visitors accustomed to Eastern winters, the homey comfort of easy chair living with Gas Heating, will be impressive proof that it pays to live in California.
